

OUR MISSION »

Iraqi Christian Relief Council exists to support, protect, and defend persecuted Assyrians Christians in Iraq and other countries in the Middle East by providing emergency humanitarian aid, prayer support, and advocacy.

We also have the privilege of educating the world of the religious and ethnic cleansing being inflicted on Christians in Iraq. This is our passion and calling.

OUR FOUNDING HISTORY »

Most Assyrians in Iraq have sadly become accustomed to living under violence, persecution, and religious threat. In 2006 we watched attacks on the church in Baghdad our hearts filled with sorrow for our fellow Assyrian Christians. This was the day when we decided to be a voice for Christians in Iraq.

After much prayer and encouragement, in 2007 Iraqi Christian Relief Council started in response. Our team committed to take the responsibility of spreading the word about the brutal treatment of the Assyrian Christians in Iraq from that day forward. We became a 501(c)(3) organization registered in the state of Illinois in 2009.

Today our work consists of humanitarian aid, advocacy, prayer support, and education. We travel throughout the U.S. on behalf of the indigenous people of Iraq, the Assyrians also known as Chaldeans and Syriacs.

Despite the cruel ISIS attacks in 2014, we've witnessed the Assyrian Christians of Iraq remain steadfast in their faith in the Lord. We are continually moved by the perseverance of this ancient Christian community. Our work is funded through the generosity of individuals, churches, foundations, and businesses.

OUR FOUNDER »

Juliana Taimoorazy is the Founder and President of the Iraqi Christian Relief Council. Her own unique story as a refugee has made her a strong leader and an unshakable voice for Christians in Iraq today.

As a young woman in 1989, Taimoorazy was smuggled into Switzerland due to religious persecution in her native 'Iran'. After spending seven days in a Zurich monastery, she was again into Germany to seek religious asylum. After spending one year in Germany, in December of 1990 she came to America as a refugee.

In 2000, she obtained her Master's degree from Northeastern Illinois University. As a passionate leader who knows firsthand how education can rebuild lives in America, she has generously helped several refugee women through education to rebuild their lives.

In 2006, Juliana made a commitment to be a greater voice and advocate for the persecuted church in Iraq and refugees who have resettled in the United States. She founded Iraqi Christian Relief Council in 2007 which has helped thousands of displaced Christians throughout Iraq with food, shelter, and medicine. Today, through her activism and media appearances on FoxNews, NewsMax, and several Christian radio programs, Taimoorazy has tirelessly promoted the cause of the Assyrian Christians throughout the world.

From her time as an Assyrian Christian living in Iran, Taimoorazy is fluent in English, Italian, Farsi, and Assyrian.

TAKE ACTION »

- > Learn about the issues through our press and media appearances at IraqiChristianRelief.org/Media
- > We are in need of financial support – both small and large gifts. Please donate today! IraqiChristianRelief.org
- > Hold a fund-raiser or take an offering for one of our urgent humanitarian causes. IraqiChristianRelief.org/Cause